

Use this guide to help your family learn how God's Spirit can help us "make waves."

First, watch this week's video!

Make Waves:
What you do today can change
the world around you

Memory Verse

"God began a good work in you. And I am sure that he will carry it on until it is completed. That will be on the day Christ Jesus returns."
Philippians 1:6, NIV

Bible Story

The Good Samaritan
Luke 10:25-37

Bottom Line

Show kindness to everyone.

Activity

Bag of Kindness

What You Need:

Pillowcase or solid (non-transparent) bag; various items from around the house (spoon, ice cream bowl, bandage, blanket, socks, etc.)

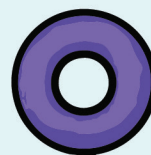

What You Do:

Put all the random items in the pillowcase. You and your child take turns passing the pillowcase back and forth. On each turn, reach inside to grab an item without looking at it. With each item you pull out, think of one way you could use it to show kindness to others.

For example, you might give a water bottle to a lifeguard at the pool . . . invite a neighbor to have ice cream with you . . . or give a bandage to someone who needs it at the park.

Say, "How could you show kindness to someone with [insert item]? Could you give it to someone who's sad to help them feel better? Could you use it to play with someone who's feeling alone?"

If there's time, go back through the items the other person drew from the bag, and think of another way you could use each item to show kindness to others.

Talk About the Bible Story

In the story Jesus told, who showed kindness? (the Samaritan)

How did the Samaritan show kindness to the man who was hurt? (He stopped to help the man; he bandaged the man's wounds; he took the man to a safe place where he could get better, etc.)

Why is it sometimes difficult to show kindness to people who are different from us?

Who is one person you can show kindness to tomorrow?

Parent: Share about a time when someone showed kindness to you when you really needed it. How did that make you feel?

Prayer

Use this prayer as a guide, either after talking about the Bible story or sometime before bed tonight:

"Dear God, help me show kindness to my family, friends, and neighbors. Help me show kindness to people who are different from me. Help me to be like the Samaritan in the story and show kindness to EVERYONE. Amen."
