

D Group Questions

1. Are you a goal setter – why or why not?
2. What goals have you set in your life?
3. What are some of the goals you set and met? What are some goals that you failed in?
4. How many of your goals involved God in order for you to reach them? (Faith Goals)
5. What are some of the goals you have set that will please God?
6. Explain the goals you have that are motivated by love? Why they are your goals?
7. If your goal is to honor God with your life, is there a new goal you need to set for yourself?

Please pray that this series is life changing for you.

You will start reading your books next Sunday, Sept. 19 together and for the next several weeks you will literally be on the same page.

Challenge one another.

Hold each other accountable to completing this series.

Love each other and encourage each other to have a better life with God.