The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven, give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Affirmation of Faith:

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from which, he shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer Focus: Setting the Atmosphere of Prayer

Our hymns of praise and thanksgiving help prepare our hearts for prayer as we enter worship each Sunday morning. Thoughtfully chosen, each hymn honors our Lord and Savior and helps set a reverent tone for the service. As you sing, lift your voice with gladness and listen closely to the words, allowing their message to draw your heart toward worshiping and honoring Jesus. Let the Spirit move you into celebration for all that He has done and will do for us.

Today's special music performed by the choir is "What a Day That Will Be" by Jim Hill. This song speaks of Christian hope, comfort, and anticipation of Jesus' glorious return to take us home with Him. Read the lyrics as you listen to the song and let the joyous message prepare you for worship and prayer.

*There is coming a day when no heartaches shall come—
No more clouds in the sky, no more tears to dim the eye.
All is peace forevermore on that happy golden shore.
What a day, glorious day that will be!*

*What a day that will be when my Jesus I shall see,
And I look upon His face—
The One who saved me by His grace.
When He takes by the hand
And leads me thro' the Promised Land;
What a day, glorious day that will be!*

*There'll be no sorrow there, no more burdens to bear,
No more sickness, no pain, no more parting over there.
And forever I will be with the One who died for me.
What a day, glorious day that will be!*

*What a day that will be when my Jesus I shall see,
And I look upon His face—
The One who saved me by His grace.
When He takes by the hand
And leads me thro' the Promised Land;
What a day, glorious day that will be!*

“We shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is.”
