For by grace are ye saved

This type of transaction — bartering or trading — can prove to be useful when cash-flow problems would otherwise hinder a person's ability to secure needed goods and/or services. And, while there is no exchange of cash or credit, the fair market value of the goods and/or services that were exchanged are taxable to both parties and must be claimed as income on an individual's... income tax return.

Ephesians 2:8-9

What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found? 2

For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God. 3

For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

Romans 4:1-7

And he believed in the Lord; and he counted it to him for righteousness.

Genesis 15:6

4 Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. 5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

Romans 4:1-7

6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, 7 Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.
