(Sinful woman—Mary M)\ Prostitute: Shame, disgust.
Hated by women—Abused by men.

Jesus showed her respect, honor, dignity: Loved her appropriately
(5:45)

Her Extravagant act of worship: - expression of the value placed on the relationship

³ While [Jesus] was in Bethany, reclining at the table in the home of Simon the Leper, a woman came with an alabaster jar of very expensive perfume, made of pure nard. She broke the jar and poured the perfume on his head.

Mark 14:3

Scent used to Attract men—expensive! - not everyone wore fragrance

You can have all of my life! Everything I have. Everything I am!

- Her gift represented her past. (Leaving my sinful life.)
- Her gift represented her future. (Savings and my provision)

Fisherman burning his boat! Not returning

She didn't just pour some of her perfume—All of it!

Some freaked—Waste? Sold for more year's wages! (20k).

v4 But there were some who were indignant among themselves, and said, “Why was this fragrant oil wasted? 5For it might have been sold for more than three hundred denarii and given to the poor.” And they criticized her sharply.

6But Jesus said, “Let her alone. Why do you trouble her? She has done a good work for Me. 7For you have the poor with you always, and whenever you wish you may do them good; but Me you do not have always. 8She has done what she could. She has come beforehand to anoint My body for burial. 9Assuredly, I say to you, wherever this gospel is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be told as a memorial to her.”

Jesus told them—Beautiful—Good news is preached—Story told.

Breaking & Pouring

²² As they were eating, Jesus took some bread and blessed it. Then he broke it in pieces and gave it to the disciples, saying, “Take it, for this is my body.” ²³ And he took a cup of wine and gave thanks to God for it. He gave it to them, and they all drank from it. ²⁴ And he said to them, “This is my blood, which confirms the covenant between God and his people. It is poured out as a sacrifice for many. Mark 14:22-24

Broken and poured out!

And [Jesus] took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me."
Luke 22:19

Do this. Live a life of brokenness to God's purpose. Do this.
Not just the ritual, the act itself. Be broken and fully dependent on God!

Actually the first prayer. It's the truest picture of salvation itself.
Take my life, this bread. It's given to You.

The Gospel is an invitation to come & give your life.
To die—so you can live.

When the sinful woman broke the jar—Didn't hold back a single drop.

When Jesus' body was broken—Gave his whole life.

Are you holding something back? Maybe it's time to ask God to

Break You

Dear God, salvation prayer...

Communion

There is no direct power in these emblems we hold today... a small cup of juice and a piece of tasteless unleavened bread.... Does everyone have his or her cup of communion?? What is symbolized here today is not just an ancient custom or the traditions of men....

It is Gods perfect plan of salvation... What the Old Testament saints couldn't even dream of.... We are living today. All of our past, present, and future sins... covered by the Blood of Gods eternal Lamb...

Where have you fallen short of Gods Holiness? What thoughts have you had that are not pleasing to Him? Hidden motives? Secret agendas? Whether in thought, or deed, sins of omission or commission, Gods Grace is here today... Examine yourselves, understand His redemptive process, and make a choice today to receive His provision in Jesus.... As we partake of His offering we also unite ourselves together to each other. We are true brothers and sisters now eternally by Jesus's Blood!

For I received from the Lord that which I also delivered to you: that the Lord Jesus on the same night in which He was betrayed took bread; and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, "Take, eat; this is My body which is broken for you; do this in remembrance of Me." In the same manner He also took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me."

26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death till He comes.

If you're online..... Would you stand up & stretch your hand towards the screen?? If you are here this morning & are ready to ask God to SEARCH YOU. To confront yourself and "own your stuff",... Come to the altar & let me pray for you.
