

Unlike Moses | Deut. 18:15-19; Acts 3:22-26
Rev. Dr. Russell St. John

1. Why are questions of identity so important? Why is it important to establish who defines identity?
2. In what ways is Jesus like Moses?
3. What attributes defined a true prophet? Why, then, were false prophets so dangerous and destructive?
4. Who stood behind the words of a prophet? What did the man who ignored a prophet risk?
5. Who must listen to the words of a prophet? What prevents us from listening? Why should we listen?
6. In what ways is Jesus unlike Moses?
7. What attributes and works distinguish Jesus? What did he do beyond what Moses did?
8. Why do these differences matter?
9. What can and must you seek from Jesus that Moses could never offer?
10. What does it mean to “turn?” How do you turn? For what purpose?
11. What can you expect from Jesus when you “turn?”
