

Why Struggle So? | Colossians 2:1-7
Rev. Dr. Russell St. John

1. Paul struggles in part to make sure that individual Christians are being “knit together in love.” Why is this communal aspect so important to our faith?
2. Why is it necessary to find our wisdom and knowledge “in Christ?”
3. What “plausible arguments” do you think the Church in America believes today? How does biblical Christianity combat these?
4. How will you cultivate discernment?
5. In what way will you reinforce Paul’s “theological blueprint” for your own walk in Christ?
6. Why is spiritual power inversely proportional to self-reliance?
7. Does your walk display gratitude? How will you work together to increase thanksgiving as a mark of belonging to Christ?
