

The First Telling | Genesis 3:8-15; 1 John 3:8
Rev. Dr. Russell St. John

1. What did Adam and Eve do that revealed the destruction that the Serpent had wrought?
2. How did their behavior differ from before?
3. Whom did they begin to resemble and in what ways?
4. What is amity? And why did God need to promise enmity?
5. Why is this account of destruction—the Bad News—so necessary for each believer to grasp? Where does Scripture teach this?
6. What did the lowering of the serpent to the dust symbolize? Why was it necessary?
7. How did the “enmity” the LORD promised serve to help Adam and Eve?
8. What is the significance of the dual “crushings” the text describes? What did Christ have to do to “destroy the works of the devil?”
9. What is the “second death?” How were Adam and Eve set free from it? Why wasn’t the Serpent?
10. How ought you to respond to the first telling of the Good News, preached by the LORD himself in Eden?
