

The Lord of Relationships | Colossians 3:18-4:1
Reverend Dr. Russell St. John

1. Who ought to govern every relationship the believer has?
2. What does “submit” not mean?
3. Why is “in the Lord” such an important phrase?
4. How does egalitarianism militate against biblical Christianity?
5. Why is it okay to have different roles?
6. What does the Creation order tell us about husband/ wife relationships?
7. What does the Fall tell us about husband/ wife relationships?
8. Why is it so important to understand that love is primarily an action rather than a feeling?
9. Why does obedience to parents so matter to the LORD?
10. How are children like puppies?
11. What is the 99% rule?
12. For whom do you work? What does it matter?
13. Who sets the standard for how to treat those under you? How does he treat you?
