

He Has Told You | Micah 6:6-8
Rev. Dr. Russell St. John

1. What is broader the context of Micah 6:6-8? How does that context shed light on the questions in verses 6-7?
2. When is an offering the LORD commands not acceptable? Why?
3. What undergirds an acceptable offering?
4. What does God desire more than sacrifice? Why?
5. How do we “go through the motions” in our own worship?
6. What does verse 7b tell you about the moral state of God’s people? What did they fail to understand?
7. Why is it bad news to tell a person to do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly?
8. Under what condition can we strive toward just, merciful, and humble living? What enables it?
9. What are some practical ways we fail to do justice in our church? To love kindness? To walk humbly?
10. What is one way you will strive to do what is “good” as a result of this Scripture?
