Rev. Dr. Russell St. John

1. How does it comfort you to know your shepherd?
2. In what ways are Christians like sheep?
3. How does your shepherd use his staff?
4. Why are you called “the flock of [his] inheritance?”
5. What is the significance of dwelling in a forest? In a “garden land?” In Bashan and Gilead?
6. How does the LORD answer Micah’s prayer? What does he promise?
7. What implications for you flow from these verses?
8. Why shall the nations experience shame?
9. What picture does Micah convey by describing the nations as creeping out their “strongholds?”
10. Why will the nations “dread” the LORD rather than reverence him?
11. When will these prophecies find fulfillment?
12. What implications for the lost flow from these verses?
