

Repentance Unto Life | Mark 1:14b-15
Reverend Dr. Russell St. John

1. Why must repentance unto life be a gift?
2. To whom is it given?
3. What Scripture(s) justify the notion that repentance represents an unrepeatable moment in time?
4. What Scripture(s) justify the notion that repentance represents a repeatable, necessary part of Christian life?
5. Why is it necessary for whole churches to engage in seasons of repentance?
6. If repentance is a gift, how also can it be a command?
7. Why is it necessary to grieve over sin? What collateral benefits does repentance produce in believers?
8. What characteristics mark true, repentant grief?
9. What characteristics mark false or worldly grief?
10. How will your practice of repenting change because of this teaching?
