

A Call to Prayer | Colossians 4:2-4
Reverend Dr. Russell St. John

1. Can you name a prayer to which God answered “no,” for which you’re thankful for his negative reply? Why was it better for him to deny you?
2. What is prayer? Can you think of times when you have offered up “prayer” in name only? What kinds of “not-really-prayer” prayers tempt you?
3. What makes consistent prayer so difficult?
4. Why must you maintain watchfulness in prayer? And for what?
5. How does thanksgiving in prayer fuel consistency in prayer?
6. Do you treat growing consistency in prayer as a process or a once-for-all wish? Why?
7. Why does Paul pray for results? Does such prayer negate the need for hard work? Personal responsibility?
8. What kind of “door” does Paul imagine?
9. What is the mystery of Christ? What must you do with it?
10. For what is the Session asking you to pray this year? Will you?
