1) If we say "we should adhere to God's original design" should we also be naked vegetarians? Since that was the original design does that make it "the best way?"

2) Does God bless all marriages, even those of nonbelievers? What if it's just a legal marriage with no "covenant promises" made before God?

3) I was married to my first husband, and then we divorced. Then I remarried my second husband. Neither husband is religious (I'm a late bloomer). I believe what you taught that my first marriage was a gift from God, even though we didn't have a relationship with God (and we are still friends to this day). But I have two questions:

- a. Is my 2nd husband still a gift of God? If so, why did I get such a gift when I left my 1st marriage (my 2nd marriage is great, but would be better if he went to church).
- b. Why do I get along with my 2nd husband better than the 1st? God put my 1st marriage together but the 2nd one is better.

- 4) a. What is the difference between someone born a eunuch and someone who claims to be born gay?
- b. Does not the possibility for either situation exist based on the definition of "eunuch?"

5) Is divorce considered sin in a case of abuse – for example, rape? Does rape qualify for “sexual immorality.” For context, this occurred years ago.

6) In a marriage, when one spouse becomes unfaithful and the marriage ends up in a divorce, are both spouses allowed to remarry without committing adultery?

7) In Scripture about wives submitting and men leading, the wives are always addressed first (I believe). Does this have some significance? Most would argue (in culture) that wives should submit IF MEN LEAD like Christ. But I'm curious if the way Scripture is written debunks this idea.

8) The language in Matthew 19 says "a man to divorce his wife." Can a wife not divorce for any reason?

9) How can we encourage a daughter of ours who did get a divorce? She's a Christian. Definite scars are there.

10) TWO FOR ONE:

- a. Does God break the marriage bond upon entrance to Heaven?
- b. In Heaven, will I still be married to my husband?

- 11) "Be fruitful and multiply" was a command given prior to the fall. But a woman's curse due to the fall was to experience the pain of childbirth. My question is twofold:
- a. What was the perfect plan for "be fruitful and multiply?"
  - b. Will this be a function carried out in heaven?

12) How do you deal with anger in marriage?

13) My husband was very abusive, and I have not been with him in 10 years, but I am still married to him. I am working on getting my divorce. Is it okay to get remarried if I find that special somebody? I don't want to feel guilty about it.

Q&A EXTRAS

14) How to find joy in life when it's hard?

15) Does God have a sense of humor?

16) What does the Bible say and what do you believe about IVF and how far a couple should go trying to get pregnant before acknowledging maybe it isn't in God's plan for them?
