

Community Group Questions:

1) Someone read Matthew 5:13-16. What is the main point Jesus is making?

2) What were the primary functions of salt and light in the first century? How does this give the Christian an idea of how we are to influence those around us?

3) What role does truth play in the Christian's saltiness and luminosity?

4) Have you ever known someone who really embodied these examples? Can you share a story?

5) Jesus calls you to be salt and light in your life right now. What are some practical ways you can shine in your current circumstances?
