1. Selfishness is a sin struggle that all Christians wrestle with. What does it look like in your own walk with Christ? Have you seen ways in which being preoccupied with ourselves contributes to our own unhappiness?
2. Paul laid out three particulars when it comes to how Christians should relate to one another: bearing with one another in patience, pleasing others rather than ourselves, and building others up. Did one of these strike you as immediately applicable in your life? How so?
3. Paul also laid out three means by which we can be equipped to live for others: the example of Christ, the testimony of the Scriptures, and the grace of God. Which of these three stood out to you? Why?
