

Community Group Questions:

1. Which aspect of last Thursday's sermon stood out to you most?

Why?

2. Even though the Old Testament is no longer binding today, what do the following passages say about its value in the church age?

A. Romans 15:4

B. 1 Corinthians 10:1-11

3. There are numerous benefits to studying the Old Testament. It answers some of life's biggest questions (i.e. origin of life, sin, etc.), it enhances our view of God (Psalm 139, Isaiah 40), and it offers encouragement through compelling examples (Joseph, Ruth, David, Esther, etc.). Can you think of other benefits to studying the Old Testament?

4. What are some of the dangers of looking for Christ in every Old Testament passage?
