

Community Group Questions

1. Where do you see evidence of brokenness in creation? Does your experience match what Paul is saying in the text about the physical world?

2. Where are you "groaning" under the weight of sin? Are you counseling your heart with the future realities that Paul refers to here? If not, how could you?

3. It is commonly heard in churches today that eschatology (doctrine of the last days) is a secondary matter to which we shouldn't give a lot of time/attention. What do you think the Spirit would say about that view in light of this text?
