Community Group Discussion Questions:

- 1. Read verses 11-19. What do we learn about sin and repentance?
- 2. Who does the younger son represent? How have you seen the younger son in your own life?
- 3. Read verses 20-24. What do we learn about God's heart toward the lost? What in these verses really sticks out to you?
- 4. Read verses 25-32. What do we learn about the sin of self-righteousness? What was keeping the older son from coming into the party?
- 5. Who does the older son represent? How have you seen the older brother in your own life?
- 6. Read the two parables prior to this one (the lost sheep and the lost coin). What are the parallels that all three stories have? What are the differences?
- 7. How can we use this text to share the Gospel with the lost?
