

Community Group Discussion Questions:

1. What is so unique about the fact that Timothy was strong in doctrine and in his love for people?

2. The comment was made that Timothy had no major gaps in his life. He had integrity in all "manners of life" (v. 10).
 - A. Why do you think some Christians lack this virtue?

 - B. What are some of the keys to living with integrity in all areas or "manners of life"?

3. One of the main topics of this message was perseverance and finishing well. What are some of the key decisions to walking with God over the long haul?

4. If you grew up in a Christian home, the church, or have attended CrossLife for any length of time, what do you think it would look like to treasure the investment you have been given?
