

Community Group Questions

1. In what ways can personal convictions serve as a helpful aid in the Christian life?
2. Paul says it is okay to have convictions, but it is not okay to sin against other Christians who choose differently than you do (Rom. 14:3). Can you think of examples of how this might happen in the following scenarios?
 - A. A weaker Christian judging those who are convinced of greater freedoms.
 - B. A stronger Christian despising those who have a more sensitive conscience.
3. If you develop a strong conviction regarding a gray area in life, what are some practical ways you can show love to those who hold to a different conviction than you do?
4. How should Romans 14:10-13 shape our thinking and temper our assessment of others who hold to different convictions

WELCOME TO CROSSLIFE

Amazing \(g\)Race Team Signup

To glorify Christ by being and making disciples
Join others to pray in the Conference Room Thursdays at 6:00pm

UNASHAMED

“BALANCING CONVICTIONS WITH LOVE”

Romans 14

Introduction: A healthy church has both unity and diversity

Six Guiding Principles to Help Shape our Thoughts on Personal Convictions

#1 Make sure you understand the difference between...

#2 Cultivate a heart of love toward others...

#3 Don't assume narrower convictions automatically...

#4 Understand the factors that often influence Christians...

#5 Give room for other believers to hold to different convictions...

#6 Be willing to limit your freedoms...

Announcements:

- E4:12 This Sunday @ 9am in the Chapel!
- GBC Men's Retreat April 26-27th at Beartooth Christian Camp!
Register in the back of the room for $50 with code CLGMEN!
- Ladies, registration is open for CLG women's retreat on April 27th at Paradise Valley Church on Titus 2:4-5. Registration open $25!
- Crosslife Amazing (g)Race on Friday, April 19th. Signup on back!
- Bozeman Navigators is hosting a Swing dance this Saturday at Venture Church @7!
- Phillippians and French Toast tomorrow @ 6am in the chapel girls!
- Hang around after Crosslife to play some games tonight!