“The Tears of the King”
Luke 19:41-44

The King enters Jerusalem the first Palm Sunday. Multitudes of people are there to greet Him. But are they clear in their thinking about who this King really is? They are celebrating His arrival and, yet, Jesus does not share their exuberance. They cheer, but He weeps! Why?

Announcements

Welcome and thank you for attending our church service today. If you are new to Helmar and are interested in finding out more about us, please stop at the Welcome Center. We have a gift bag for you.

~We are looking for workers to maintain the grass at the Helmar Cemetery. It takes approximately 25 man hours to mow and trim around the gravestones. Mowers and trimmers are provided. This is a paid position and requires “attention to detail”.

~Tom and Beth Adams have submitted their resignation as the Family Life Center custodial staff. Thank you, Tom and Beth, for your years of service to our church! So, we are seeking to fill that position from within our church family.

~We are looking for a person interested in taking responsibility for the church's sound system. It will include setting up and taking down microphones, sometimes instruments, and other related equipment for events and services. It will require troubleshooting from time to time, as things do not always operate as we expect. Finally, they will take primary responsibility for operation of the system, and this will be a paid position. If you are interested in any of these positions, please see one of the Trustees (Dan Hanback, Ron Mathre, Rich Niles, Stan Osmond)

Thank you for coming out to support our Youth basketball team! They won both games, and raised over $1200 for FLY Beyond.

On April 14th, the Helmar Youth Group will be using their talents and leading our church service. Following the service the youth will be providing a wonderful lunch for our church family including sandwiches, a variety of soups, salads, desserts, and a side of smiles! This will be a free will offering fundraiser for the youth.

Church Phone Number: The new church phone number is (815) 201-3789. If you have access to the church directory, you may simply call Stacy directly on her cell phone.
