

Be Stable

I heard someone say “Satan’s attack will always start with your identity. If he can destabilize who you are in Christ, if he can destabilize your identity, make you question who you are in Christ, he can destabilize everything else in your life.”

At this exact moment, I am not under attack, and I cannot testify that I believe this also, but it makes sense. As a follower of Christ, I have a certain security knowing that I am His. Knowing that I can call on Him anytime, anywhere and no one can take that away from me. He will always love me; He has called me His daughter. II Corinthians 6:18 “And, 'I will be a Father to you, and you will be my sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty.’ He will always be with me. Is.43:2 When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and when you pass through the rivers, they will not sweep over you.

He knows me! Isaiah 43:1 “Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have summoned you by name; you are mine. There are many more verses in the bible that tell us who we are to God. What a comfort that is. To know that He loves us like children. We all love our children. There isn’t anything we wouldn’t do for them.

Matt 7:9-11. ⁹“Which of you, if your son asks for bread, will give him a stone? ¹⁰ Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a snake? ¹¹ If you, then, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good gifts to those who ask him!

We are family. We are loved, cherished, protected and provided for, because we are family. And because of all of this, I can see how Satan wants to make us question who we are in Christ. If we question all of this, we would be hesitant about asking for help, or at least unsure of His response. If Satan can “destabilize “our faith, we would question so much and often that leads to so much insecurity. We need to stay in the Word and remember that every word in the Bible IS true! Remind yourself daily of these verses so that we can stay strong and resist the enemy.

1 Peter 5:9 Resist him, standing firm in the faith, because you know that the family of believers throughout the world is undergoing the same kind of sufferings.

So, Lord, let us stand firm in you. Remind us of our identity in you so that we may resist every temptation. So that we may fight the enemy at every turn. Amen
