CCWM MISSIONARY
SHANNA CHOATE

CCWM MISSIONARY
WAYNE ANTUSAS

CCWM MISSIONARY
JULIUS HAGAN

Shanna and her husband Ray serve the unhoused, addicted and lost people living on the streets of Riverton Wyoming. They operate a food truck ministry with a twist. All meals are shared together. It is at their ever expanding table where they see God at Work among their friends and neighbors.

Wayne knows what it is like to be considered an enemy. He was incarcerated for a crime he didn't commit. After serving 23 years behind bars, the state of Illinois fully exonerated him. Today he and his wife Lena Marie are back in prison, but this time by choice. It is behind prison walls where they are seeing God at work.

Julius, is affectionately known among the CCWM home team as Paul from Ghana. This is due to his passion to plant churches in places where there is no church. Recently, Julius has been surprised to do just that in Belgium, planting a church in a mostly atheist community among refugees who have moved to the area. It is here among those who have not yet heard that he is seeing God at work.
