

Because Mom Said So

Mother's Day Sermon

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

ICEBREAKER: What did you do on Mother's Day?

1. Reflecting back on the interaction between Jesus and Mary when he was 12 years old (Luke 2:46-51), can you remember a time when Mom didn't understand you? Please share.
2. Can you share a time when this concept, of "Because God said so" applied in your life? A time when God needed you to obey Him, and you weren't sure why, but you did. What was the outcome?
3. Is God asking you to obey him with something happening in your life right now? What is keeping you from obeying him?
4. Read John 19:25-27. How do you think Mary felt after listening to what Jesus said?
5. When was the last time you talked to your mom, not because you needed something, but just to check-in? (Mother's Day does not count!)
6. What can you plan to do with mom to affirm her as your mom, or to show her that she carries weight in your life?
7. DO IT!
