RECAP

We are in week 4 of our series on the Apostles' Creed! This week we looked at the lines, "He ascended to heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty. From there he will come to judge the living and the dead."

► Icebreaker Question: What were your favorite ways to cool off in the summer as a kid?

DISCUSS

Each week, as a group, we'd like you to recite the Apostles' Creed and share what stands out to you each week.

► Key Passage: Acts 1:6-11, Ephesians 1:19-23, Psalm 2:1-12

1. As you read through the passages about Christ's ascension and coming Judgment, what stands out to you?
2. What does Christ's ascension mean to your commitment to follow Jesus?
3. Does Christ returning as Judge give you cause to fear or to rejoice?
4. How can we, as followers of Jesus, live in a way that magnifies Jesus' position as King?

CLOSE

This week, as you close in prayer, make sure to spend some time asking people what is going on in their lives and how you might be able to love another this summer. Find ways to spend time with, support, or celebrate the people in your group!

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.
