Key Scripture: Romans 15:30–33 (ESV)

30 I appeal to you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in your prayers to God on my behalf,

31 that I may be delivered from the unbelievers in Judea, and that my service for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints,

32 so that by God's will I may come to you with joy and be refreshed in your company.

33 May the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

Theme: Jehovah Shalom – God is our perfect source of true peace

Some Things to Remember Regarding the God of Peace

1. God is never taken by surprise
2. God never changes
3. God is our stability
4. God is our security

Discussion Questions

- In Romans 15:30, Paul urges the church to “strive together” in prayer. What does it mean to pray with this kind of persistence and unity?
- Why do you think Paul ends his request for prayer with “May the God of peace be with you all”? How does prayer lead us to peace?
- Which of the four reminders about the God of Peace encourages you most right now, and why?
- How do you personally experience God's stability and security during times of uncertainty?
- What's one area of your life where you need to invite Jehovah Shalom to bring His peace this week?
- How can we pray for each other in ways that not only ask for solutions but also invite God's peace into the situation?
