

Come Clean
Real Prayer, Real Presence
New Covenant Prayer Part 3

Real Prayer Requires the Real You - Matthew 6:9-13 (AMP)

1. The Real "I"

- Are you presenting your true self to God?
- God, this is who I really am—broken, distracted, and in need of You.

2. The Real "Thou"

- Are you praying to the true God or a version you've created?

Challenge: Trust God as a loving Father who welcomes you (Hebrews 4:16).

Honesty Breaks the Masks - 2 Corinthians 3:16-18 (AMP)

Common Masks We Wear:

1. Perfection: Pretending to have it all together.
2. Busyness: Using activity to hide brokenness.
3. Politeness: Filtering prayers to sound "right."

Key Point: God isn't fragile—He can handle your truth!

Real Prayer Brings Real Transformation - Hebrews 4:16 (NKJV)

1. Freedom comes with confession (2 Corinthians 3:17).
2. God's Presence deepens when we're authentic.
3. Transformation happens when we allow God into our hidden places (2 Corinthians 3:18).

Practical Application

1. Reflect on your view of God and validate it with New Testament Scripture.
2. Drop the masks.
3. Be honest with God.
4. Pray boldly and authentically.

Encouragement: James 1:22 – "Be doers of the Word, not hearers only."

Closing Thought

Real transformation starts when you decide to come clean! Let the real you meet the real God in prayer.
