Text: Genesis 4:26b – "At that time people began to call upon the name of the Lord."

Study the Scripture

1. Read Genesis 4:26b: Discuss what it means for people to "call upon the name of the Lord" for the first time. Why is this significant in the biblical narrative?
 2. Context: Humanity had begun to experience separation from God after the fall. How does this verse mark a shift in their relationship with Him?

Main Points

1. Place – We Are Separated from the Place of God

- Key Insight: Humanity was removed from Eden, the place where they walked with God.
 - How does sin create separation between us and God?
 - Why do we need prayer to align ourselves with God's plans in a fallen world?

2. Presence – We Are Separated from the Presence of God

- Key Insight: Sin distanced humanity from the intimate presence of God.
 - What does it mean to experience the presence of God in prayer?
 - How can we make prayer more about fellowship with God and less about asking for things?

3. Peace – We Are Separated from the Peace of God

- Key Insight: Prayer restores peace in a chaotic world.
 - How has prayer helped you find peace during challenging times?
