1 Corinthians 14:1-5 ESV

The benefits of the prayer language

1. The believer speaks praise to God
2. The speaker prays with spiritual revelation
3. The believer is spiritually edified (built up)

The benefit of prophesy

1. The believer speaks to the people for their upbuilding, encouragement, and comfort

FACTOR POINTS

Worship: The Holy Spirit invites us into deep fellowship with God now, through faith, hope, and love. The three are God's earthly ministry through his church, while we await the Second Coming of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Learn: Understanding of spiritual gifts affirms their validity and necessity within the life of the believer.

Serve: The Spirit filled life facilitates the believer's edification (being built up, encouraged, and strengthened) for the purpose of edifying (building-up) others.
