Read: Galatians 5:16-18 (ESV)

"But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh, for these are opposed to each other, to keep you from doing the things you want to do. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law."

Discussion

1. What does it mean to "walk by the Spirit"? How can we practically apply this in our daily lives?
2. How do the desires of the flesh conflict with the desires of the Spirit in your personal experience?
3. Paul mentions that these opposing desires keep us from doing the things we want to do. Can you share a time when this battle influenced your decisions?
4. What are the implications of being "led by the Spirit" and not under the law? How does this freedom affect our behavior and choices?
5. Reflect on your current spiritual walk: in what areas of your life do you see the fruit of the Spirit growing?
6. Identify any recent struggles between fleshly desires and spiritual desires. Consider what steps you might take to strengthen your walk in the Spirit.
