Scripture: James 1:1–8 (ESV)

1 James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, To the twelve tribes in the Dispersion: Greetings. 2 Count it all joy, my brothers, when you meet trials of various kinds, 3 for you know that the testing of your faith produces steadfastness. 4 And let steadfastness have its full effect, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing. 5 If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask God, who gives generously to all without reproach, and it will be given him. 6 But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea that is driven and tossed by the wind. 7 For that person must not suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord; 8 he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

DISCUSSION

1. What kinds of trials have tested your faith recently?
How do these trials affect your prayer life?
2. James says to “ask God for wisdom.”
What areas of your life need godly wisdom right now?
3. God gives “generously and without reproach.”
What does this reveal about His heart toward our prayers?
4. Why does James stress asking “in faith, without doubting”?
How do you handle doubt when praying for something important?
5. What does it mean to be “double-minded”?
How can we pursue greater focus and trust in prayer?
6. How can we support one another this week in praying with boldness and confidence?
