Key Scripture: 2 Samuel 18:24–32, 2 Peter 3:7–18 (ESV)

Key Themes:

1. Faithfulness in Delivering Messages

- The Cushite remained committed to delivering truth, even when it was difficult.

2. Patience and Preparedness

- As 2 Peter 3 urges, we must live in holiness, anticipating Christ's return.

3. Speaking Truth to Power

- The Cushite delivered hard news to King David—believers must stand for truth, even before authority.

4. Loving the Least of These

- True faith is reflected in how we treat the overlooked and oppressed.

Discussion Questions:

- How can we demonstrate faithfulness in sharing truth, even when it's uncomfortable?
- What does patience and preparedness look like in your spiritual life?
- How do you stand for truth in a way that honors God?
- How can you love and serve the least of these this week?

Application:

- Identify ways to be a faithful messenger of God's Word.
- Commit to acts of service that uplift those in need.
- Pray for courage to speak truth with wisdom and love.
