Truths Concerning Apostolic Ministry

by: John Eckhardt

Apostles Have a Breakthrough Anointing

Breakthrough is defined as an act or instance of breaking through an obstruction; an offensive thrust that penetrates and carries beyond a defensive line in warfare (Webster's)

Pioneers have the ability to break through ignorance, fear and other obstacles that keep men from advancing. Apostolic ministry has the ability to penetrate the defense set up by the powers of darkness. This is why it is first. Someone break through first before any significant progress can be made

Someone must have the courage, ability and power to break through the obstacles set up by the enemy. Apostolic preaching and teaching has this penetrating power.

Apostles Have a Breakthrough Anointing

There must be breakthrough finances, television, radio publishing, building, etc. We must be able to break through tradition, religion, ignorance, poverty, witchcraft, pride, rebellion, etc. The apostle has the anointing to break through these things that people might be set free to walk in the truth.

Nations, cities and regions are opened up because of breakthrough anointing. Without this breakthrough anointing, areas remain closed to the truth. This is why it is so difficult to break through in some cities, nations or groups of people. These areas and people need sent ones the apostles.

When apostle are sent into a region, they have the ability through the anointing to penetrate the darkness and bring light and revelation to the people. There is no substitute for the apostle. This ministry is like a battering ram against the citadels of the enemy.

Apostles Set in Order

For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are waiting... Titus 1:5

The Apostle Paul sent Titus to create to set things in order. When a local church is out of order the apostle will discern it and set things in order. Apostolic ministry is necessary to set order in the Church and maintain that order.

The Kingdom of God operates through divine order and authority. Apostles have authority to set things in order. This is often an unpleasant function but a necessary one. Setting in order can mean correcting rebuking and removing people from certain positions.

Apostles Set in Order

It includes making adjustment in leadership, doctrine, vision or spiritual priorities. It also includes dealing with sin, rebellion, disobedience and confusion which often gains a foothold in the church. Apostles also deal with strife, division and carnality that manifests in the saints.

When things are out of order in our lives and churches, apostolic preaching and teaching will confront it and correct it. The apostles have the grace, boldness and authority to confront and correct. This grace and authority comes from God and not man.

Apostle Are Fathers

For through ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel. 1 Corinthians 4:15

Apostolic ministry releases the spirit of the Father. A father is one who plants seed and birth sons and daughter. A father is a mentor. Paul referred to Timothy and Titus as his sons in the faith.

A father loves, trains, corrects and leaves an inheritance for his children. Apostles leave a strong spiritual heritage for generations to follow.

Abraham is an Old Testament type of apostolic ministry. He is referred to as “the father of faith.” He set the standard for justification by faith for others to follow. Every person who is justified by faith is compared to Abraham, the father of faith.

Apostle Are Fathers

The Lord is raising up spiritual fathers who will reveal the heart of the Father. What the Church lacks is not preachers, but father. There are many preachers and teachers but few fathers. This restoration of apostolic ministry is restoring the father to the House of God.

Apostle Pull Down Strongholds

Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalt itself against the knowledge of God... 2 Corinthians 10:5

The word imaginations is the Greek word logismos meaning reasoning. It refers to arguments in the minds of men which keeps them from the truth. The teaching and preaching of apostles destroys and demolishes these arguments.

The Twentieth Century New Testament says, "We are engaged in confuting arguments and pulling down every barrier raised against the knowledge of God." These arguments are called strongholds which apostolic ministry pulls down.

Apostle Pull Down Strongholds

They are demonic strongholds that keep people believing lies and hinder them from receiving the truth, They are like castles and fortresses that are designed to keep the prisoner in and the truth out.

Once these strongholds are demolished, people can then see and receive the truth. Apostolic ministry has an anointing to demolish these strongholds.

Apostolic Ministry is a Ministry of Boldness

Then Paul and Barnabus waxed bold, and said....Acts 13:46

In Spite of opposition, apostles are bold ion their message. The Philips translation says, "...did not mince their words but said..." The spirit of boldness is a characteristic of true apostles. They have an awareness of being sent and do not fear men who oppose them.

Sometime boldness is misconstrued for arrogance. However, Boldness is necessary to overcome spirits of intimidation that often come from religious spirits. The early Church prayed for boldness.

Apostolic Ministry is a Ministry of Boldness

Boldness causes us to maintain our momentum instead of retreating in fear. Boldness gives apostles the ability to break through the spiritual opposition they often encounter. Boldness causes them to continue to deliver the message they are sent to preach, in spite of persecution. To be bold means not to hesitate or be fearful in the face of danger; courageous; requiring courage and daring(Webster's)
