

OVERCOMING INSECURITY JEALOUSY & ENVY

co| PASTOR LUIS R. REYES

Today, I'd like to help us admit
the problem within us.

#1. I am not fully established and at rest in my identity in Christ.

#2. I have insecurities
that have not been fully healed
through the power of God's grace.

#3. I admit my heart is motivated by self-interest, self-preservation and self-promotion

#4. I am ungrateful for what God has given me, His gifts have not been enough for me. I admit I want what He has given to others.

#5. I admit I can't celebrate the success others due to my underlying feelings of competition and ambition.

#6. I focus a lot of my thoughts and energy struggling over the success of others.

Envy- campaigns for one's own placement
Love- campaigns for the advancements
of others

When people are bad to us we stop being good to them.
We stop loving, caring, and helping,
trusting and hoping.
