

FAKE VS REAL

James 2:14-19

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

What are you willing to consume or wear that is fake over real? Where do you absolutely have to have the “real” thing – no substitutes allowed?

James is all about the doing, the walk that shows who we really are. How can a person know that their faith is the real deal – the genuine article? What are some cheap substitutes for real faith?

Faith for the first followers of Jesus always included belief and action. There was never separation between those two. Seeing an empty tomb changed them. Where has belief and action been separated for you? Do your actions show your beliefs or hide them?
