

GO AND DO

Mark 12:30-31; Luke 10:25-37

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

What are some subtle ways that we can look at people and quietly judge? See them but do nothing to help?

Not loving others goes against everything Jesus taught and showed through his death. Why does this become such a struggle for us at times?

What situation/person in your life right now should you consider wading into the mess? We can't help everyone but we can help one. Who is the one for you?
