11.9.22

Jo Robertson

Remember: you do not have to do the entire study (you may not have time) – you can choose what questions you want to discuss.

Read Ezekiel 37:1-14

1. What themes do you see in this passage? Why are they important?
2. What is God promising in this passage?
3. Why does God show Ezekiel this vision? What does he expect Ezekiel to take away from it?
4. What role does Ezekiel play in what happens in this vision?
5. How have you experienced God bringing new life in your life?
6. Where do you see God bringing new life in the world around you? What can you do to nurture and support this new life?
7. Why does God choose to move in this world and bring new life with our involvement? Why does he choose us to participate?
8. In what ways does God call us to participate in his mission?
9. “God has plans for people and places.” What role do you see God calling you to in his current plans?
10. What will be your contribution to SWBC’s global work in the coming year?
