

Resurrection: The Promise of Transformation

14.4.24

Jo Robertson

Remember: you do not have to do the entire study (you may not have time) – you can choose what questions you want to discuss.

Read Luke 24:36-49

1. What was the first thing Jesus said to the disciples? Why did he say this? What wider application does this have in this context?
2. What was the importance of Jesus showing them his hands and feet? What does this tell us about the resurrected Jesus?
3. Read verse 45. How has Jesus done this for you?
4. What does it mean that we will be Jesus' witnesses?
5. Read verse 49. What is this promised gift Jesus said he would send? Why is it important?
6. How has the resurrection transformed you? How has Jesus changed you and transformed your life?
7. How does Jesus help us see transformation in other people?
8. How is this something that is supposed to involve us changing together? Why is that 'together' so important?
9. How is Jesus changing your community? How is he calling you to be part of this kingdom transformation?
10. How do we hang on to hope in this time between the resurrection and the full, complete transformation of all things?

Prayer points:

- Spend time praying for the situation in Israel/Palestine and the people affected by the conflict.
- Pray for the continuing transformation of your community and your part in this.
- Pray for the recently arrived family from Afghanistan.
