SPOTLIGHT // MEN'S MINISTRY

The goal of men's ministry at Signal Pres is to connect men in meaningful relationships with one another around the truth of God's Word so that they can be equipped to be the faithful presence of Jesus in their ordinary lives. This happens in a number of ways that remain open to men of all ages:

- Our Fall Men's Bible Study has gathered over 50 men in small groups to study the book of Galatians. Every week on Monday mornings, we gather for breakfast and to hear God's Word explained and applied from a team of gifted teachers. Our Spring study of Ephesians begins on January 22nd - you are very welcome to join us! Signups will open in December.

- Our first Porch Night was a wonderful evening of conversation and fellowship. Three men opened their patios and fire pits so that men of various generations could come together. New friendships began and established ones were deepened. Be on the lookout for another Porch Night opportunity in the Spring to join in and be a part of.

- Our Men's Retreat will be on Saturday, January 20th and will be led by Justin Whitmel Earley. Justin is a gifted speaker and the author of a number of books, including his most recent Made for People. He'll be talking with us about Scripture's vision for how we were made to need community and friendship in our lives. Signups will begin in December, so be on the lookout!

All these and more - including an exciting smaller gathering in February that is being planned - are our invitation to you to be a part of the work that Jesus is doing among men here at Signal Pres.
