SPOTLIGHT // BELONGING

As we continue to emphasize belonging and connection at Signal Pres, we have a couple of opportunities in the weeks ahead for you and your family to take another step into community and discipleship.

Thursday of Holy Week is when we remember Jesus's institution of the Lord's Table as a sign and seal of our union with him and with one another. On March 28th, we'll do this by an all-community meal in which we'll eat, fellowship and laugh together, followed by a service in the sanctuary that will be centered on coming to the Lord's Table in a communal way. To help us make sure that we are able to feed you and all who come, please make a reservation for dinner!

During the month of April, we will be hosting a formation hour for all ages between the morning worship services. Details will follow this month, but grades k-5th will be divided into groups on the kids floor, Middle & High School will meet separately in the Student wing, and adults will meet together in Dudley Hall on 4/7 before breaking into smaller groups for the remaining 3 weeks. We hope this will be an opportunity for all of us to connect with some new people as we have a guided conversation about a particular topic.

We want you to find your place here, and we trust these will be helpful pathways to that.
