SPOTLIGHT // KINGDOM PRAYER TRAINING

In prayer, God invites us not only to bring our daily needs, but also to enter into the grand privilege of partnering with him in his work in the world: "Thy Kingdom Come."

As we continue our 2026 emphasis on prayer, this fall we're learning the habit of "Kingdom Prayer," praying for God to move beyond our daily needs in our neighborhoods, city, and world. As we grow in this, we'll find our prayers increasingly reflecting God's heart and the prayers of David, Paul, and Jesus himself!

On the evening of September 11 and the morning of September 12, we'll have the opportunity to be trained by gifted teachers and leaders Karen and Carl Ellis.

The Ellises are professors at RTS Atlanta and travel around the globe training men and women to pray for the Kingdom to come. They often work with the persecuted church and oppressed groups to see God move when things seem most difficult.

Friday, September 11, 6–8:30 PM

Saturday, September 12, 9 AM–Noon

The cost of the training is $25 per person or $40 per couple and includes registration, dinner, and breakfast. Childcare is available upon advance request.

Dear Faithful Partner and Friend,

God Has Moved: The Mighty Oaks Ministry Home, his Sanctuary for reconciliation in Jesus, is secured! Today, in a region marked by deep historical conflict, war trauma, and generational pain, God has opened a remarkable door.

We are thrilled to share a monumental answer to prayer: the Lord has provided a physical sanctuary for reconciliation. We have officially rented a beautiful 4+ bedroom ministry home designed specifically to bring Jewish and Arab believers, leaders, and seekers together under one roof to be disciplined, renewed and restored!

"To bestow on them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy instead of mourning, and a garment of praise instead of a spirit of despair... that they may be called Mighty Oaks of Righteousness, the planting of the Lord, for the display of His splendor." — Isaiah 61:3

Right now, on the front lines of war, religious persecution, and intense cultural pressure, our Christian leaders in Israel and the West Bank are standing in the middle of a relentless spiritual storm. The Tent is giving everything we have to team with Christian leaders and minister across deep historic divides, bringing the peace of Christ to both Jewish and Arab communities. But behind the scenes, many of these courageous men and women are at their absolute breaking point. They are not asking for bigger programs or complex strategies. They are making a simple, urgent plea: "We need a safe place to rest and go deeper with the Lord."

Their heart's cry isn't just to escape the pressure, but to get past the noise of war and ministry hustle so they can reconnect with their first love. In Mark 6:31, when the pressure on the disciples was overwhelming, Jesus told them: "Come with Me by yourselves to a quiet place and get some rest." Just like the early Church relied on "houses of peace" (Luke 10:5) and places of refuge to care for the wounded (Luke 10:34), our leaders need a physical sanctuary today.
