SPOTLIGHT // VBS RECAP

Last week our church campus was transformed into "Hometown Nazareth" where we welcomed around 300 children and 150 volunteers for Vacation Bible School. The kids (and adults) didn't just hear about God's love; they saw it in a live drama each night through Jesus' mother, Mary and her unbelieving friend Eunice; they touched it when they visited the Artisans; they lived it by playing Nazareth games, using hammers and nails, and making pottery; they sang about it in the opening and closing worship times; and they put it into action by giving enough money to provide for two Haitian children to attend school next year. The children raised $1040.44 for Haiti Outreach Ministries!

Exploring Bible-times Nazareth helped kids build and grow relationships with other kids and adults and deepen their understanding of God's big story - Jesus loves them and came to provide a way for them to live with God forever.

Thank you so much to our outstanding VBS volunteers! We could not do it without you!
