SPOTLIGHT // STAFF UPDATE

We are excited to share the individual who will be joining us to serve as our new Director of Community Life (DCL).

Abby Hutto will be our new DCL. Abby may be a familiar face to some of you from when she spoke at the "Christmas Together" women's gathering in December of 2023. Abby has served most recently as Director of Spiritual Formation at Story Church in Westerville, Ohio, and she is the author of God for Us and has served regularly as a speaker in local churches. The search committee was immediately struck by Abby's vision for community groups, her experience in training men and women to lead small groups, and most of all the depth of her relationship with the Lord. As we continue to cultivate an environment at Signal Pres where people experience the goodness of the Gospel in community, we anticipate Abby's gifts being an immense gift to our congregation. Abby is married to Ken, and they have two college-aged children, Hannah and Harry. She'll move to Signal Mountain and will begin serving with us in early August.

Abby has the following to say about joining us at Signal Pres: "Over the past several years, I have been deeply affected by the incredible depths of the love of our Heavenly Father, the abiding friendship of Jesus and the powerful, indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit. I long for the love of our God to permeate every aspect of our lives, both as individuals and as a community of faith. Though each of us need vital practices in our personal lives to connect us to God, none of us can thrive in our relationship with him on our own. We need one another. I am so excited to come alongside you in this journey of discovering how the love, friendship and presence of God profoundly shapes us into the people and community that God longs for us to be, and seeing how he chooses to use us to love a hurting world in his name and for his sake."
