SPOTLIGHT // BIBLE STUDIES

Spring Bible Study: Teach Us To Pray

In Luke 11 the disciples made a simple request of Jesus: "Lord, teach us to pray." This semester we're making that request our own. In the simple 57 words of the Lord's Prayer we find a doorway into life with Jesus, and as we study these words together this semester we'll do more than just learn about prayer - we'll learn to pray ourselves.

This January we have four different ways for you to make this prayer your own. On Monday mornings men are invited join the thriving and growing group that gathers from 6:45-8 AM. On Thursday mornings, we welcome women to the warm community of women of all ages who come together to study God's Word. And our Monday Evening Women's Study is another great place for women to gather together to learn and practice Scripture.

This spring, we're also offering a new evening study option for adults that is meant to serve those who can't make these other options. Beginning January 20, a combined study for men and women will meet in Basecamp from 6:30-8:00 p.m. The evening will include a large-group teaching time with both men and women, followed by gender-specific breakout groups. For this joint study we will be offering childcare for ages 0-10.
