SPOTLIGHT // HIGHLANDERS

The Highlanders ministry exists to provide opportunities for seniors 65 years of age or older to grow in their relationship with God. We do that in a variety of ways. From outings to Bible studies, to praying together and fellowshiping with one another, Highlanders activities are meant to foster growth, spiritually, mentally, emotionally and socially.

Some of the activities to achieve this are:

Living Water - Highlanders meet the third Tuesday of each month in Woodward Hall for a hymn sing, Bible study, fellowship and a delicious lunch for $8. RSVP by calling the church office or emailing Jesse Schwindt (jshwindt@signalpres.org).

Lunch Bunch - These outings include fellowship activities at restaurants and/or touring places of interest. This November we will be taking a trip to Fall Creek Falls.

Caring Presence Every Tuesday a group of Highlanders visit homes and senior living facilities to share our love and minister to members with gifts.

Caring Meals - Every Thursday meals are delivered to those who are ill or otherwise in need of a delicious dinner.

If you are 65 or older you are invited to join us in any or all of these activities. We'd love to have you! For more information, visit signalpres.org/connect/ministries/highlanders-ministry/.
