SPOTLIGHT // KIDS ADVENT DRAMA

On Wednesday, December 6th we will wrap up our fall semester of Kids Discipleship with an original Advent drama written by Christin Ross, performed by several of our 4th and 5th graders, and made possible because of some awesome volunteers.

Lost and Found: An Advent Thriller is based on the parables of Jesus found in Luke 15. Without sharing too much, just imagine three strangers – a Boy Scout, a Ballerina, and a Taxi Driver – stranded in a blizzard when their cab hits a tree. In search of shelter, they “happen” upon a mysterious house, but they must contend with a cranky Groundskeeper who won’t give them the key. As the strangers look for a way in, it appears that whoever owns this house has been searching for them all the while . . .

We hope you’ll join us for this imaginative yet gospel-rich drama. Why do we call this an Advent drama and not a Christmas drama? Because Advent is about more than the birth of Christ. Advent means “coming” and is a season of preparing to celebrate the first coming of Jesus, and at the same time, anticipating his second coming to establish his kingdom. Maybe you grew up observing Advent or maybe the idea of Advent is completely new to you. Either way, we hope our kids’ drama will remind you of who Jesus is and why his birth is so amazing!
