SPOTLIGHT // SUMMER NIGHTS

Our first two Summer Nights at Signal Pres have been full of joy, laughter, and unforgettable moments across all ages. From roasting s'mores around fire pits to cheering on a wildly creative lineup of talent show performers, these evenings have brought our church family together in the best way. We saw jump-roping sisters show off their skills, a Swiftie who could give Taylor a run for her money, a five-year-old steal the spotlight with his rapping abilities, and our own Joey Sherrard bring down the house with a bluegrass rendition of "Ice Ice Baby." Yes, seriously.

But beyond the fun, these nights have reminded us how valuable it is to simply be together as a church family—to laugh, play, and build relationships that reflect the fullness and joy of life in Christ. Whether you're new to Signal Pres or have been around for years, there's something about roasting marshmallows or cheering on a spontaneous performance that reminds us we're one church family.

And we're not done yet! Two more Summer Nights are on the way—July 13th and 27th—and each promises its own kind of fun. With plenty of shade, water games, and ways to stay cool, we'll keep the good times going. Don't miss it. There's a place for you here, and we can't wait to enjoy a couple more Summer Nights together.

July 13th is Zaxby's Chicken and watermelon (register & pay by this evening, Sunday, July 6th) or bring your own picnic.

GLOBAL MISSIONARY SPOTLIGHT

World Outreach

TeachBeyond/France Jeff and Veronique Kim

Our ministry equips Christian leaders to impact churches and schools across France, Congo, and Mayotte through teaching, training, and coaching. This enables children and adults to become all God intended.

We see ourselves as being given the privilege of participating in and fostering a movement that is neither constrained nor restrained by TeachBeyond. Rather, TeachBeyond taps into a deep and ancient river of wisdom, inspired by God Himself and revealed in His authoritative Word, which overflows its banks and spawns life-giving streams. While these streams carry within them the discernible TeachBeyond quality of transformation and redemption, their influence and blessing extend far beyond the reach or even the knowledge of TeachBeyond.

We see ourselves as a catalyst for missional Christian education and as stewards nurturing renewal—not as an end or as proprietary guardians. We see ourselves as a unified, multinational, multicultural movement reflecting the diversity of the global Church.
