SPOTLIGHT // SUMMER STUDY

Regular Bible studies, community groups, and events might be taking a break for the summer, but that doesn't mean we can't gather! Join us on July 12 from 6-8PM as our church family comes together for an evening of fellowship, Bible study, encouragement, and dessert.

We're excited to welcome Jamie Voss, Director of Women's Ministries at Perimeter Church in Atlanta, GA. A gifted Bible teacher and popular retreat speaker, Jamie is passionate about helping people know Jesus, grow in their faith, and disciple others. She will help us grow in the good news of the Gospel through her teaching.

Kids will join us at the beginning of the evening before heading out for their own time of discipleship, while students and adults learn together. Nursery available for ages 0-3.

Cost is $5 per person, with a $25 family maximum. Please register by 12:00PM on July 7 at signalpres.org or by scanning the QR code below.

GLOBAL MISSIONARY SPOTLIGHT

Kerus Global Education

Dr. Jennie Cerullo and Dr. Marcia Ball

The mission of Kerus is to inspire, equip and mobilize professionals, organizations, and faith-based communities around the world to actively address important public health and education issues adversely affecting youth and their families.

The vision of Kerus is to positively change individuals and communities by equipping key leaders with professionally credible and biblically-based training, resources, and systems to implement community-based best practice programs caring for orphans and widows, preventing the trafficking of children, compassionately responding to HIV/AIDS and other poverty stricken public health issues. The vision will come to life as we are:

- Promoting the concepts of character and life skills development as the core for education and public health interventions
- Promoting the health and well-being of youth (especially young women and vulnerable children) and the poor
- Bridging working relationships with health and human services professionals between the faith-based community and the secular world
- Providing practical needs such as food, safety, psycho-social support and housing for orphans and vulnerable children
- Preparing community leaders to create and support faith-friendly public health and education outreaches;
- Improving the skills of teachers (traditional and non-traditional) through interactive learning and classroom management training;
- Preventing the spread of HIV/AIDS and compassionately caring for those infected and affected by the virus
- Aggressively combating the abuse and trafficking of children through education and safe houses
- Providing quality educational materials and training programs that can be easily adapted to various cultural settings
- Seeing people come into a life-changing relationship with Jesus
