

A top-down view of various autumn-themed natural items arranged on a dark, textured background. The items include several pinecones of different sizes and orientations, numerous leaves in shades of yellow, orange, and brown, some with prominent veins, and several clusters of bright red berries on thin stems. There are also several smooth, brown acorns scattered throughout. The overall composition is dense and visually rich, capturing the essence of the fall season.

How do I become more thankful?

Colossians 2:6-7

“Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in him, rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.”

Colossians 2:6–7 (ESV)

Salvation is the ultimate origin of thanksgiving.

Walking in Jesus is the ultimate generator of
